SEASONAL MENU

We acknowledge the Taungurung people, the traditional Custodians of the lands we share with you today.
This precious land of rivers and lakes, of big skies and rising horizons of which they walk, shelter and protect. We acknowledge their struggles and celebrate their ancient stories of this bountiful country. We pay respects to the Elders past, present and emerging and their continuous connection to country.

Our Story

First opened for business in 1886, the title of ownership of the Mountain View Hotel has only ever changed hands twice. Initially owned by the Tyrrell family until the 1970s, then the Bundiera family from Melbourne and since 1995 by the Pizzini family.

Prior to being a hotel, the site was an Inn, local legend has it that one day Ned Kelly rode his horse through the corridor! In the gardens leading to the carpark, you will notice a huge, proud Magnolia; this tree is one of three planted by a local Chinese immigrant Rupert Hing over 100 years ago to remind himself of home. The King Valley was then home to a flourishing Chinese community who worked in industries to support the Gold Rush. This Magnolia tree sits next to a Flowering Tulip tree of similar age. Wander the gardens, there are a few other surprises such as an old Gingko and Flame trees.

If the hotel's walls could speak, they could tell many locals' stories and secrets – some best left untold, some that would make us laugh, some that would make us cry – this hotel holds a special place in many hearts, we hope after your visit, you have your own special story to tell.
